NO REDUCTION OF CHINESE FORTS.

Permanent Legation Guards Peking, if They Desired, Could Menace the Court Itself.

a Conference It Was Decide Hold Further Communicatic With the Court Before Seeing the Ministers.

Peking, Dec. 28.—Li Hung Chang and Prince Ching, the Chinese peace commissioners, have heard from the emperor, Kwang Su. Prince Ching called on the former for consultation, remaining over an hour. The court objects stremously to reducing the forts and also to allowing permanent legation guards, which, it seems to think, could be made sufficiently made at the court itself. After the conference it was decided to hold further communication with the court before seeing the ministers.

court before seeing the ministers.

Should Name Pmishable Officials.

Shinghal, Dec. 28.—The Chinese newspapers here object to the proposed peace terms. The Universal

Gazette considers that the princes and officials who are to be pmished should be named. It is questionable whether Gen. Tung Pu Hsiang is included among those punishable, and so far as Prince Tuan is concerned, it is well known that the Chinese peace commissioners have been insibment of any person of royal blood exceeding imprisonment.
